The beauty of Catholic Church teaching on human sexuality is based on the dignity of the human person. The gift of life is a most precious gift – to be cherished and respected – which enables us to anticipate and strive for eternal life, where there will be an everlasting enjoyment made possible by union with our loving Father.

Holy Moment by Gary Taylor

Be still and know that I am God.
I am a beautiful breathing blessing.
I am an existential evolving experience.
Stop yourself and come into my presence.
Be in the fullness of intimacy with me.
Trust in my transcendence permeating the present.
Draw interior calm within our mysterious holy moment.

Words cannot adequately express the gratitude, appreciation and thankfulness I have in my heart for all of you who contributed so generously to up-date my home for retirement. As you can well imagine, the central air has been a god sent with all the hot weather. No doubt the new furnace will also keep me warm this winter. The new driveway has saved me many steps up the steep hill to my house. I have thanked many of you with a personal note, but to those of you who gave anonymously I would like to take this opportunity to say “Thank You” and may God bless all of you.

Fr. Frank
